

Troy Edmondson
Director Authorised Representative

Troy has been in financial services for over 20 years.

Troy's passion for the business was derived early on when discovering the benefit of assisting clients through the traumatic process of making a claim. Since that time, Troy's business objectives included making a difference during this difficult period. And this included rating the insurers on their ability to be co-operative and not pedantic through the process also.

Troy's early employment was as a Qld police officer – after failing to reach the lofty heights of Commissioner within 6 years, Troy sought alternative enjoyment elsewhere.

When not working, Troy and his wife Kym provide an at-call tax service to their 3 children who are involved in more sporting activities than is humanly possible. And helps out regularly at school in the tuckshop – dressed as a chef!

Rhonda Nathan
Client Care Specialist

After 18 years of working in insurance, we can safely say Rhonda knows this industry very well. She brings a wealth of customer service experience and vast product knowledge to our client base. Specialising in, but not limited to, new business management, Rhonda is across all facets of our business. From servicing existing portfolios through to answering queries she takes pride in ensuring each client experiences professionalism, respect and care.

Rhonda loves being a mum and spending time with her teenage "babies". She is from a big family who enjoy nothing better than getting together to enjoy the company of many cousins, brothers, sisters and a lot of laughs. Catching up with friends and reading also balances her spare time.

Gary Nathan
Client Care Specialist

Gary has an extensive administration & customer service background that includes working in various Emergency Service professions. Gary commenced working fulltime in the insurance profession in January 2015 & has brought with him many life- experiences. Working alongside his sister, Rhonda he is quickly learning the industry and recently commenced the Diploma of Financial Planning. Gary provides professionalism, integrity and a commitment to ensuring a positive client outcome.

Gary loves a good laugh, piña coladas (& getting caught in the rain), football, spending time with his family & friends. And in his very spare time, plays "Rock-God" on weekends with his cover band.